Tips for Clogged Toilets and Sinks!

If you are noticing your toilet is clogging regularly, you can try the following steps to try and resolve it:

- If the toilet bowl is threatening to overflow, turn off the water supply to the toilet, which is located behind the toilet. Immediately clean up any overflow from the floor to stop damage.

- Use a plunger to try and clear the debris. Place the plunger over the hole inside the toilet and press down firmly several times. Once the debris has been pushed through, the toilet will clear automatically. Repeat this process several times until cleared.

- If plunging is ineffective, try a kettle of boiling water poured directly into the toilet bowl. Alternatively, you can try a mixture of 1 cup of baking soda and 1 cup of vinegar. Add the two ingredients to the bowl and let it sit for about 20 minutes.

If you are noticing your bathroom or kitchen sink is clogging regularly you can try the following steps to try and resolve it:

- Bathroom and kitchen sinks can be cleared with a plunger. For bathroom sinks, Place the plunger over the drain and cover the overflow hole with your hand or a wet face cloth. This will allow maximum pressure to try to release the blockage. Firmly press down on the plunger several times to try to dislodge the debris.

- If plunging is ineffective, try a kettle of boiling water poured directly into the drain. Alternatively, you can try a mixture of 1 cup of baking soda and 1 cup of vinegar. Add the two ingredients to the sink and let it sit for about 20 minutes.

If you are unable to unclog a toilet or sink please contact your regional office or call the Repairs line at

National Indigenous Peoples Day

On June 21, recognize and celebrate the history, heritage, diversity and culture across Canada of First Nations, Metis, and Inuit

Every year on the 21st of June, Canada celebrates National Indigenous Peoples Day. NIPD is held on June 21st due to the summer solstice and its importance. For many generations, Indigenous groups all over Canada celebrated their culture and heritage on the day of the summer solstice. It is celebrated on this day because it is the longest day of the year and in the Northern hemisphere, it marks the first day of summer.

Key Milestones:

- 1982: The National Indian Brotherhood (now the Assembly of First Nations) called for a National Aboriginal Solidarity Day.
- 1995: The Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples recommended a day be designated as National First Peoples Day.
- 1996: The Governor General of Canada, Romeo LeBlanc, Through Proclamation declared June 21st as National Aboriginal Day.
- 2017: The day was renamed National Indigenous Peoples Day by Prime Minister Justin Trudeau.

Equally important with the celebrations and ceremonies is to recognize and understand the history and hardships generations of Indigenous people have gone through. The effects of residential school are still prominent in many communities. For those who have been effected by residential school and find this time difficult, support is offered by:

Indian Residential School Survivor Society: (604) 985-4464

COELS supports Indigenous Brothers and Sisters leaving federal institutions and those dislocated from society, to reintegrate into Community by providing respectful wholistic services and culturally safe spaces.

Language Resource: firstvoices.com allows for indigenous communities to share their language with interactive learning resources.

Emergency Preparedness—Wildfire

In the event of an emergency it is always best to be prepared! This issues Emergency Preparedness section covers preparing for a wildfire.

Emergency Alerts

In the event of a life-threatening emergency, such as a wildfire, an emergency alert will be issued to impacted areas in B.C. Some alerts may be sent to small warning areas, while others may affect more than one region or be issued province-wide.

You don't need to do anything to receive an emergency alert. They will automatically be sent to active cell phone numbers. Read the alert immediately after receiving it to determine if you're in the impacted area, if so you will need to evacuate the area.

For emergency information updates go to emergencyinfobc.qv.bc.ca and/or follow @EmergencyInfoBC on X (Twitter).

Emergency Evacuation

If an Evacuation Alert is in place, be ready to leave on short notice. Take these steps

- 🔥 Move patio furniture, cushions, door mats and any other flammable outside items indoors
- 🔥 If possible take down flammable curtains and window covers
- 🔥 Ensure your house number is visible. This will help firefighters locate your home quickly
- 🔥 If an Evacuation Order is in place it means you are at risk and must leave immediately.
- 🔥 Grab your Emergency Kit and Emergency Plan before you leave!
- 🔥 On your way out close all doors and windows. Turn on both interior and exterior lights so your home is visible to firefighters in the event there is heavy smoke
- 🔥 If you have natural gas in your unit it shut it off before you leave!

Emergency Kit Should be Ready!

In previous issues we shared how to make an emergency kit. The BC Government has a comprehensive list online: www2.gov.bc.ca > Public safety and emergency services > Emergency Management > Public preparedness and recovery

Have your kit ready as you may need to use the supplies while you shelter in place at your home. If your home is unsafe to stay in you will need to take your kit with you and your family as you find safety.

Have an Emergency Plan

In the event of a wildfire you might need to be away from your home for several days. You can find great information on preparing an emergency plan at PreparedBC.ca/EmergencyPlans or refer to the last newsletter.

Ensure your family knows what to do in this scenario by preparing ahead of time. Note who you will contact. Have access to radio to listen to emergency broadcasts. You can keep a copy of your Emergency Plan in your Emergency Kit.

Ensure Your Renter's Insurance is Up-To-Date

Check your renter's insurance annually (at a minimum) to make sure all your possessions and family are covered in the event of a natural disaster. For any questions about renter's insurance you can reach out to your local M'akola office.

Pressed Flower Lanterns

Make your own pressed flower lantern that is so pretty and simple to create

Supplies:

- * Mod podge
- * Dried pressed flowers (note: you can make or buy)
- * Glass jar (smooth)
- * Paintbrush
- * Twine
- * Scissors
- * Tea candle

Directions:

1. Apply a small area on the outside of the jar with a thin layer of mod podge (it is better to work in small areas since the mod podge dries quickly).
2. Press dried flower onto the semi-dry mod podge area.
3. Cover the flower with another layer of mod podge (if the flower has layered petals you may need to glue the top petals and the bottom petals together with the mod podge).
4. Repeat steps 1-3 until the outside of the jar is covered. Once the jar is covered, let it air dry.
5. Once the jar is dry, cover the entire jar with another thin layer of mod podge to even out any textures or in case there were any missed spots.
6. Cut a piece of twine long enough for it to fit around the top of the jar a few times and extra room to tie a bow. Once the twine is cut, starting at the center of the twine, begin wrapping it around the mouth of the jar several times. Make a knot and then tie a bow with the remaining twine.
7. Add the candle to the middle and light it to see the finished product!

Crispy Coconut Tofu

Try these easy, crispy coconut tofu sticks that are a fun new take on tofu

Ingredients:

- * 1 block extra-firm tofu, drained
- * Salt
- * 1/3 cup instant flour (such as Wondra)
- * 2 large eggs
- * 1/4 teaspoon red pepper flakes, plus a pinch
- * 1 cup (un)sweetened shredded coconut
- * 2/3 cup panko breadcrumbs
- * 1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil

Directions:

1. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F and line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Slice the tofu into 1/2-inch-thick sticks. Press the tofu pieces gently between paper towels to remove the excess water, then season generously with salt.
2. Whisk the 2 eggs and 1/4 teaspoon red pepper flakes in a shallow bowl. Put the flour in a separate shallow bowl and set aside. Pulse the coconut and panko in a food processor until roughly chopped (or cut up to preferred size), then transfer to a third bowl and toss with 1 tablespoon olive oil.
3. Line all three bowls up starting with flour, then the egg mixture and ending with the coconut mixture. Dip the tofu pieces in the flour, shaking off any excess, then dip in the egg mixture, letting the excess drip off, and press in the coconut mixture to coat. Arrange on the prepared baking sheet. Bake, rotating the pan halfway through, until the tofu is golden brown, about 25 minutes.
4. Serve with your choice of sauce and sides.
